7. (Unclassified - RJK) Jay Sourwine, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called to inform us that his Subcommittee had spoken with one [ ] whom Sourwine described as a CIA defector. Sourwine said that [ ] was in a highly disturbed state and seemed to be on the point of redefecting. I thanked him for the information and told him I would inform the proper Agency authorities. Later, Sourwine called to say that he had been advised by the FBI that [ ] is not a defector but came to this country as a [ ] refugee in 1957. Sourwine apologized for referring to [ ] as a defector. As a result of the second call, no action is required.
